

Raffle rules for the 2012 Kinsmen Home Lottery
Licensed to the Kinsmen Club of Medicine Hat (AGLC ID# 63232) and administered by the Kinsmen Club of Medicine Hat (Incorporation number 50009188)

- a. Raffle tickets may not be sold to persons under the age of 18. Ticket sellers will advise potential buyers not to put the tickets in a person's name that is under the age of 18.
- b. When the winner of any ticket is under the age of 18, the prize shall be delivered to the formally appointed guardian of the estate of the Public Trustee.
- c. In the event a winning ticket stub has more than one name on it, the Kinsmen club of Medicine Hat will award the prize to only one of the individuals identified on the ticket. The Kinsmen Club of Medicine Hat and the Alberta Gaming and Liquor Commission are not responsible for any disputes which may arise between the individuals whose names appear on the ticket stub.
- d. All tickets are sold for cash, cheque, Visa, MasterCard, AMEX and Interac and JCB Cards.
- e. There are no restrictions as to the qualifications of the purchaser except for the Club President, Home Lottery Chairman and their spouses are not allowed to participate in the lottery.
- f. All winners have one full year from the date of the draw to claim their prize. If their prize is unclaimed after one full year, the club will apply to the Alberta Gaming and Liquor Commission to liquidate the prize and place the proceeds towards the project.
- g. All ticket requests shall be sent to the Kinsmen Club of Medicine Hat or their representatives.
- h. The chances of being selected depend on the number of tickets sold, to a maximum of 10,000 tickets.
- i. All winning tickets from Early Bird or Final Draw prizes will be returned to the draw barrel after all draws for future and grand prize draws.
- j. There are no refunds. All sales are final unless the club has sold less than 6,500 tickets by June 24, 2012. If this is the case, the club will apply for an extension for the final draw date from the Alberta Gaming and Liquor Commission and will refund any tickets if the ticket holder wishes to do so.
- k. All prizes must be accepted as awarded. There is no cash value or substitutions for any prizes.
